Assalamualaikum, greetings of peace and blessed Friday from me and my family.

I apologise for being late in sending this appreciation message to all donors. Alhamdulillah, my family and I are truly grateful and thankful for the help provided by SPK, and also to all donors who contributed to help families who are less fortunate.

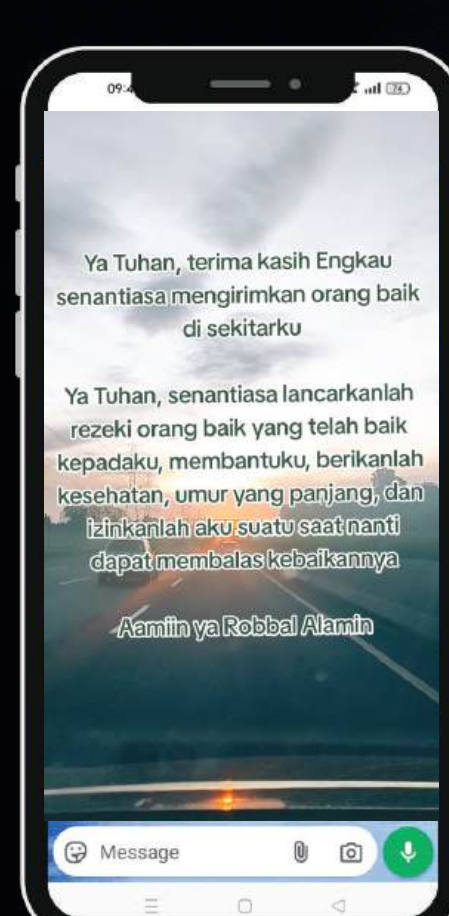

May all donors always be granted abundant sustenance and have all their affairs made easy in this world and the Hereafter. Only Allah SWT can repay all the goodness that you have done. Thank you once again for being willing to share your blessings with my family. My family and I are deeply grateful because the assistance given has truly helped ease our family's burden, especially with the rising cost of living today. Thank you so much from all of us in my family.
