PUSPK: From Assistance to Independence

Growing Her Kuih Business, One Step at a Time

Arlinawati Mahadi from Sijangkang supports her family by selling traditional kuih from home, earning an estimated RM300 in net profit each month, while her husband works as a security guard. With three children aged between five and eleven, the small business provides an important additional source of income for the family.

Through PUSPK, SPK has supported Arlinawati with a stainless-steel table, kitchen cabinet, steamer, high-pressure stove and business bunting to help improve her preparation and operations. Her business continues to run, and the PUSPK team will continue monitoring her progress as she works towards growing her income.

Turning Homemade Muruku Into Extra Income

Nor Azlina binti Zainudin from Sementa is a mother of eight children, aged between three and sixteen, who earns additional income by selling kuih and doughnuts while also taking orders for homemade muruku. Together with support from her husband, who helps with the business while taking on part-time work with J&T, she currently earns an estimated RM400 to RM500 in net profit each month.

Nor Azlina was also one of the participants in the 2026 Iftar Distribution Programme. To help strengthen her business, SPK purchased 100 packets of muruku worth RM1,000 and provided her with a business banner and stickers to support her branding and promotion.

Building Two Opportunities From One Home

Ridzuan bin Mohd Yasin is working to build an income through massage therapy, specialising in nerve and stroke rehabilitation massage services.

Through PUSPK, SPK has supported his efforts with promotional materials and a bunting to help introduce his services to more potential customers. At the same time, support was also provided to help his wife begin offering tuition classes, giving the household another opportunity to generate income. Together, these small steps are helping the family build more sustainable sources of livelihood.

Jazakumullahu khairan, thanks to you and our generous community, Skuad Prihatin Kemiskinan served over hundreds of families and individuals in March alone.

May Allah reward you abundantly, Ameen.
